NUMBER 158

UNITED STATES WILL CONDUCT AGGRESSIVE WARFARE AGAINST GERMAN NATION

By Associated Press

Washington, March 23.—The American government has decided that steps to meet the situation with Germany shall include preparation for effective and aggressive warfare in addition to measures for the protection of shipping. So far, it was learned after today's cabinet meeting, there has been no decision as to whether the sending of a military force to Europe shall be proposed, but the army as well as the navy and the industrial resources of the nation are to be made ready for any demand that may be made upon them.

The American government has decided upon sweeping measures to be put into effect following the expected declaration by congress soon after it meets April 2, that a state of war exists between the United States and Germany.

Fully appreciating Germany's policy of acting in war first and talking afterward, the government has determined to provide against every possible emergency.

Broad questions involved were discussed today at a long cabinet meeting to which heads of departments carried reports on preparations already made and others contemplated. Details are being taken up between President Wilson and the individual cabinet members.

Regretfully, the government apparently has decided that since Germany was making war on the United States through the ruthless killing of Americans and destruction of their ships, the issue must be met with steps much more far reaching than mere attempts to protect individual merchant craft.

As outlined after today's cabinet meeting, the preparations of the government are not to be for a short war or a war marked by half-way measures. Nothing is to be taken for granted. A complete program has been prepared so that everything done will be carried out in a systematic and orderly manner.

The exact measure of American participation in the war is not expected to be revealed until after the president addresses congress and until public sentiment crystallizes. So far as is known no political alliance with the entente allies is contemplated, although military as well as naval co-operation is possible, and the government will be unsparing in both money and supplies for the allies.

The president has not yet written his address to congress, although he has given it preliminary consideration and has a general idea of what he will propose. He is expected to be specific and to make clear that the American government and people have no quarrel with the German people, but cannot tolerate the acts of the German government.

Whether an army will be sent abroad is to be left to the future. It would take many months to train an army for such service and many things may happen in that period. But this possibility is being considered and the government proposes to be ready for it as soon as practicable.

Detailed plans requiring congressional action are expected to be complete when congress meets April 2. Prior to that time the democratic and republican leaders of the senate and the house will be here and will hold conferences with the president and members of his cabinet. Speaker Clark and Representative Kitchin returned to Washington today from the South.

The council of national defense and its advisory committee have been called to meet tomorrow morning. This council, with the advisory committee of men prominent in almost every line of endeavor, is expected to play an important part in the conduct of actual warfare. Through it and through individuals and organizations, many proffers of help and co-operation have come from all parts of the country.

The measures decided upon are military, naval, industrial and financial. They are understood to be most comprehensive. All are receiving the personal attention of the president.

By Associated Press. Indianapolis, Ind., March 23.—The annual 500-mile automobile race, scheduled for the Indianapolis motor speedway on Memorial Day, was declared off today by James Allison, secretary-treasurer of the company, because of threatening war conditions.

Man and Wife Suicide; Leave Note Showing Pact

Mrs. Erickson, who was about 40 years old, came to the asylum for the insane as a patient a few months ago. Today her husband came from Chicago to visit her. RAILROADS TO INCREASE FREIGHT RATE

Chief Roads of East Petition Commerce Commission for General Raise.

By Associated Press.

Washington, March 23.—The chief railroads of the East today petitioned the interstate commerce commission to amend its rules to permit a general increase in all freight rates.

Western railroads notified the commission that they, too, would ask for a general increase in freight rates and probably will follow the Eastern roads in asking for a suspension of the rules.

Southern roads are expected to take similar action. The proposed increases probably will range between 10 and 15 per cent, according to location of the roads, with indications pointing to a flat increase of 15 per cent being requested in the case of the Eastern roads which carry the great volume of the country's traffic.

In their application to the commission for a suspension of the rules the Eastern roads represent that they are sustaining and are threatened with enormous decreases in net operating income, "due to large increases in wages, in cost of fuel coal, other material, supplies and equipment and to increased cost of capital."

"Substantial increases in freight rates are imperatively demanded by their financial condition," the application reads. "The emergency requires that these increases should be made in the most expeditious manner and with the least possible delay."

What the petitioners had in mind by "substantial increases" is not revealed in detail, but an intimation is given in an informal statement to the commission by Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, in which Mr. Rea said:

"Though the extent of this increase has not been definitely passed upon, the 5 per cent increase which was asked for in 1913 would not be of any practical use as applied to the present situation. The granting of a 5 per cent increase based upon existing freight revenues of the companies (Eastern railroad companies) would come anywhere near, would not begin to pay the bill for fuel and for labor under the Adamson act alone."

FOUR DRAW FINES IN 7 SPEED CASES

In seven speeding cases before Judge Kingsbury yesterday, four drew fines, one is under investigation and two are continued. Those fined are: B. H. Bruck, $25 (second offense). James Blackwell, $10. James Parr, $10. Henry Gillette, $10.

"The law provides for ten miles maximum within the fire limits and eighteen miles outside," said Judge Kingsbury, after disposing of the cases. "As a matter of fact, our policemen are giving the driver the benefit of the doubt in every case and are generally permitting up to twenty miles in the fire district and thirty miles outside as long as the autoist uses reasonable care. Even when these speeds are exceeded the speeder comes before the judge and thinks he is being abused. 'I promised the people of Waco that I would put an end to speeding danger. If $10 fines don't do the work, I'll move them up to $50 and $100. I believe the safety of our women and children is paramount to the thrill that comes from seeing the wheels go round.'"

TORNADO MAY HAVE KILLED 50 IN INDIANA

Storm Sweeps New Albany. Deaths Reported in Arkansas Also.

By Associated Press.

New Albany, Ind., March 23.—Between five and fifty persons were killed and probably 100 or more were injured by a storm which late today swept over New Albany, demolishing scores of residences and several industrial plants.

Twenty-five bodies are known to have been recovered and it is expected this number will be materially increased. In addition to the bodies taken to undertake establishments, there were reports of others that were taken to private homes. Because of the difficulty in searching the ruins in the darkness, it is probable that the full list of dead and injured will not be known before tomorrow.

Late tonight sixteen bodies had been identified and nine remained unknown.

A baby about 6 months old was found floating in a small stream in which it had been borne by the wind. The child was alive and clinging to a dog which apparently had been killed by the storm. The child died in the arms of its rescuer. Later an aunt reported that both the father and mother of the baby had been killed.

An appeal was made to the city authorities of Louisville, who sent a large number of policemen to the scene. In addition, every available officer from the Indiana state reformatory at Jeffersonville, and from the Jeffersonville police force were hurried to the stricken district. State troops, it was reported tonight, are on the way to the scene. Citizens from surrounding towns hastened to New Albany and offered aid.

U.S. MAY LOAN 5 BILLION TO ALLIES SOON

Cabinet Meeting of Yesterday Comprehensive Study of War Preparations.

By Associated Press.

Washington, March 23.—Army plans in the German crisis and a portion of them may become evident at any time. Some are contingent upon action by congress. Their first object will be to fully protect the United States against any contingency.

The navy program, aside from the actual movements of existing ships, contemplates the building of vessels of all classes just as rapidly as the resources of the nation will permit and the manning of them as fast as constructed. Secretary Daniels will confer with private builders tomorrow.

The industrial plans now being coordinated by the council of national defense include mobilization of skilled and unskilled labor for the manufacture of munitions in as large quantities as possible and for the continuance of all necessary industries. Secretary Wilson in co-operation with the council of national defense has the plans well under way.

Enormous Loan to Allies.

Just how much money will be asked of congress has not been revealed. A movement is well under way for furnishing the entente allies with an enormous loan, either in the form of credits or money. It also is understood that the supply of munitions for the allies will be augmented rather than diminished.

After the cabinet meeting the president saw Governor McCall of Massachusetts for an hour and was told of preliminary preparedness measures taken by New England states and offered complete co-operation. The Massachusetts legislature has appropriated one million dollars, which Governor McCall said will be spent largely to prepare the state's national guard for quick service. He will see Secretary Baker tomorrow.

Conferences on the legislative program will begin at the capital early next week. Secretary McAdoo, Representative Kitchin and Representative Hull are expected to talk over the fiscal situation before next Wednesday, the tentative date set for a meeting of the democratic members of the ways and means committee, the revenue-raising body of the house. Various measures for providing additional revenue are being considered, including the possibility of resort to additional taxes on whiskey, tobacco and other specific articles. A mass of data relating to income tax has been prepared by experts showing the effect of various possible extensions of the law.

May Total Five Billion.

Suggestions placed before the president today included the possibility of floating a loan of five billions of dollars for the entente nations. The proposal made by Governor Harding of the federal reserve board in a recent speech at New York that the government lend the allies one billion dollars was thought to be inadvisable by some of the president's advisers.

The banks of the country, it was pointed out, are in a position of strength today never before approximated in their history. The latest report of the comptroller of the currency shows the resources of the federal reserve system to be greater than those of all the chief belligerents combined. Nearly all the huge accretions of money that have poured into the country during the two and one-half years of war could be made available for use in war whether expended by this government or by other governments engaged in fighting a common enemy.

Thus while an American army of sufficient size to conduct aggressive warfare has not yet been raised and would have to be trained and equipped, American dollars, it was pointed out, need no training and are abundant.

WAR SUMMARY

PREDICTS BATTLE

(By Associated Press.)

Temporarily, at least, the retirement of the German forces in France appears to have halted, as both the British and French communications report counter attacks and stubborn resistance at various points along the front. Notwithstanding this apparent change in German tactics, the British report progress southeast of Arras, and the French, Paris says, have moved forward between one and a quarter and two and a half miles in the St. Quentin region.

French troops also have made gains on the heights overlooking the Oise valley northeast of Tergnier and have repulsed German attacks before Thil, northeast of Rheims. Paris asserts that the Germans are inundating the Oise region and that the city of La Fere, thought to have been one of the strong points in the German line, is under water.

South of the Oise the French continue to cross the Aisne river and north of Boissons, Paris says, considerable progress has been made toward Margival.

N. Y. Mass Meeting Finds Hecklers Against War

By Associated Press.

New York, March 23.—Persons apparently pacifists frequently interrupted the speakers at a mass meeting here tonight under the auspices of the Friends of Russian Freedom. Mayor Mitchell was stopped several times by cries from the gallery, "We don't want war; we want peace."

"Let me say to the gallery," the mayor declared, in reply to his hecklers, "that the time has come when the people of this country are to be divided into two classes—Americans and traitors."

At this point some one shouted: "I hope you'll be the first man on the firing line."

"You wish me a great honor," Mr. Mitchell responded.

The Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise predicted the fall of the Hapsburgs and the Hohenzollerns, as an aftermath of the fall of the Romanoffs.

THE PRESCRIBING OF EYEGLASSES

Especially in overcoming frontal headache, neuralgia in the temples, pain in the back of head extending down into the shoulders and spine, cross eyes and eyestrain cannot be conducted on a mercantile basis for the reason that it requires more than a mere pair of glasses of the most ordinary make to subside those troubles. The optometrist who takes cases of this kind must necessarily not only know how to fit them properly, but must know what is required in the future in regard to making proper changes and how to advise the wearing of glasses for the many different defects, etc., etc.

ANNE AND $15 TO MAKE ACCOUNT TO NEWS READERS

SHE HAS THE LITTLE LADY OF THE HOUSE BUSY WEIGHING UP HER GROCERIES.

By Anne Austin.

My final report for the week will come in the morning. The little lady of the house is weighing up and measuring all the left-over groceries, which are amounting to more than we expected.

One doctor told me that he could tell me things about my menus when I was through with them, and so you may hear through me what he has to say. I hope it won't be a dry old medical talk, just for the sake of my readers. He grinned expansively as if he had something up his sleeve.

My mathematics had to be brushed up. "Let's see; how many ounces do make a pound?" The little lady would rub her corrugated brow with floury fingers as she tried to figure it out.

"When I went to school there were two kinds of weights, and I don't know which one to use."

"I think I'll eat a great big, juicy porterhouse tomorrow, if you women think you can stand such heavy diet after your week of dieting."

"Dieting!" the little lady screamed. "You know you've had more to eat than we usually have, and you have been tickled to death yourself, because you have saved at least two dollars by our management."

I sidestepped this marital discussion, which I feared might end in a display of temper by the little lady—a sight which I never want to witness, for her face is always serene, and I can't bear to have it spoiled.

When the meat on the bone is done, before putting the vegetables in, we shall cut it off and set it in the oven to brown. This will not make a big dish, but I know from experience that it will be enough when the big pot of soup arrives upon the table.

Conclusions Tomorrow.
Tomorrow I shall draw conclusions as regards the experiment, and give an itemized statement of our grocery account. It is understood that the actual disbursement will be figured from the grocery and butcher slips, and the menus were merely approximate estimates of the cost. We weighed everything, trying to arrive within a fraction of a cent at just what each dish would cost, but some discrepancies must necessarily arise. We have come to say, however, that we have come out on the right side of the $15, and that if the groceries were converted into cash, the little lady probably would have enough to subscribe for the Morning News. The beginning of this trouble, I overdid myself. I began suffering with my back. It hurt so. The doctors said it was change of life. . . and an operation was all that would help me. I felt I couldn't have that and my husband did not believe in patent medicines. When I asked him to get Cardui, he said, 'That's just a dollar thrown away,' but to please me, he would get it. I suppose there was a year I was never hungry and after taking Cardui, my husband said, 'I had better order a carload of corn and meat with it.' After one bottle I felt better. I took about a dozen bottles. I have never had an operation. . . I have worked in the fields, done our washing, ironing and cooking; we have two orphan children added to our family for which I do as my own. I can praise Cardui as a God-send to women."

D. A. R. HOLD IMPORTANT MEETING WITH MRS. NETTLES.

The Daughters of the American Revolution held a very important meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. B. C. Nettles as hostess. An unusually large attendance was noted, which was especially gratifying in lieu of the important business which was transacted.

As many know, the Daughters of the American Revolution have long been planning for the placing of a boulder on the old Waco Springs site, which has been lately designated as the D. A. R. park. This boulder is to be in the nature of a monument, and dedication services will be observed on May 5.

A committee with Mrs. John F. Marshall as working on the program for the dedication, and an especially beautiful and impressive ceremony is promised.

The donor of this immense is Robert H. Downman, who married Miss Annie Cameron, a daughter of Waco's most beloved family. This is another evidence of the love with which every Cameron and every member of the Cameron family by marriage thinks of Waco. Mr. Downman and his family are living in New Orleans, but his letters remind the D. A. R. that his heart is still with Waco and in Waco's best interests.

Mrs. W. S. McCall is a charming addition to the D. A. R. and was very cordially welcomed. There are other very desirable prospective members on the waiting list.

Although business took up the major portion of the time, Mrs. Nettles proved her claim to the title of one of the city's most charming hostesses.

One of the most beloved of the D. A. R. was present yesterday. Her presence also gives the signal for an unusually interesting meeting. Mrs. C. A. Westbrook made the trip from Lorena just to be present at yesterday's meeting. Her presence was helpful and inspiring to all.

The preamble said a state of war existed between the United States and Germany, "a contest between democracy and despotism."

Accepts U. S. as Ally in Note of Paris Writer

By Associated Press.

Paris, March 23.—"Hurrah for our new allies," says L. Marcelin, a well known political writer, in La Liberte today. This is the note taken generally by the French press toward the United States.

The news of the call of President Wilson for special session of congress and the military and naval preparations being made in that country occupy a dominant place in the public mind today.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Musterole Gives Delicious Comfort

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

Ham and Eggs The World's Best Breakfast

At the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, the depot luncheon in Lonesome Gulch, Nevada, on steamers, in dining cars, in restaurants—or at home—

Ham and eggs for breakfast stand first in favor.

But there are ham and eggs—and Ham and Eggs. To insure the absolute "limit" of good breakfast "eats" insist on Morris Supreme Ham and Supreme Eggs—Supreme in fact as well as in name.

Only the finest young porkers of uniform size and shape—Government-inspected and approved—are good enough for Supreme Ham.

The Morris cure assures just the right flavor—the piquant tang—the acid hint of hickory smoke—that distinguish this perfect ham. Try it tomorrow morning.

THE PALESTINE WORK.

WACO will extend an enthusiastic welcome to the Palestine-Waco general committee when that body assembles here to consider problems in connection with securing this line. R. R. Dupree has notified Chairman D. Leon Harp of Mexico of the time and place of meeting. Other members of the committee will come from Fairfield, Groesbeck and Palestine, the other Waco member being W. W. Naman. The most intense and deepest interest has been shown by those who are to be here Tuesday, and Waco will evince its appreciation of their interest and will join heartily in the movement to secure a line of railroad which has long been an admitted need and a patent opportunity for growth, development and expansion. The state legislature has made it possible for the state railroad to be extended from Palestine, and either Waco or Dallas will get the line if extended. Thus the contest is narrowed down to a point where Waco's chances are good, especially when the opportunities of the extension are considered as between advantages offered in the Waco extension and the extension to any other given point. The general committee of this proposed line has important business in Waco, and will be met in a spirit of cordiality and of earnest co-operation in a big and promising project.

SPEEDERS, BEWARE.

POLICE Judge Kingsbury served notice by the assessing of four fines yesterday that he intends strictly to enforce the auto speeding law. The state legislature has just passed thru both houses legislation which should make speeding unpopular thru-out the state. The speeder is a peculiar animal. He knows the general danger of the habit both to himself, to other motorists and pedestrians. The joy of speed simply causes him to forget or not to care. Perhaps the best remedy is to appeal to his pocketbook in lieu of a law making it possible to send him to jail. Judge Kingsbury in announcing that he expects to increase the average fine beyond the $10 minimum and that he will stop speeding is certainly deserving of the community support.

THE GUARDS RETURN.

WACO'S young men who went out in response to a call to arms return home today. They will be given a fitting reception. Their loyalty, patriotism and devotion to duty will not pass unnoted by the community. A rally of citizens to express appreciation of the boys and of the pleasure felt in their homecoming has been arranged for. The people should turn out and express in definite, enthusiastic manner their feelings on this occasion. These young men are foremost men in the community, and their self-sacrifice is worthy of emulation.

Much Ado About Nothing
By Roy K. Moulton.

SATISFIED.
When I was a little lad,
My father used to say:
"If you are good, perhaps you will Be President some day."
I've always followed his advice,
My conduct's pretty fair.
But father's prophecy went bad
And, really, I don't care.
The more I think about the thing
And see the howling mob
Of European fighting men,
The less I want the job.

FAMOUS AMERICANS.

Mr. Harold Hairroll.
Meet Mr. Harold Hairroll, the greatest unknown romantic actor of the celluloid drama.
When they make a film of Mr. Hairroll it causes a shortage in the collar crop in the alfalfa belt.
Mr. Hairroll has a very active countenance. He can do anything with it except crack hickory nuts or crank a gas engine.
His powers of facial expression are marvelous and sometimes almost beyond belief.
You always know whether he is expressing something or sending it by freight. He leaves nothing to the imagination.
Mr. Hairroll, our hero, expresses anger by pulling his eyebrows down over his chin and grinding his teeth. He expressed joy by standing on the toes of one foot and placing the other foot behind his left ear.
He combs his hair straight back like that of a trained sea lion, and you wonder what emotion he would register if somebody would toss him a fish.
If Mr. Hairroll gives you a sharp pain in the cafeteria, you are not supposed to mention it. For Mr. Hairroll gets $400 a week and must be good. You don't get that much.
Mr. Hairroll acted on the legitimate stage once—and only once. He got his technique and dramatic touch by acting as floor walker in a corset emporium.
He is undoubtedly one of our leading male impersonators.
He is not one of our great screen stars. Not yet. He is one of the smaller fry. He gets only $400 a week. So he says.

How Russian Revolt Will Help Allies Win the War

The crucible of war has produced the Russian revolution, and others are apparently expected by observers who note that the peoples of all the belligerent nations are taking stock of their rulers with a clear-eyed vision induced by the stern reality of suffering and death.

"The Russian people," says Russkoye Slovo (New York), "are opposed to war and to militarism, but they believe that their own success as revolutionists will mean revolution on the part of the Germanic peoples. Then they hope and believe there will come a consolidation of all the revolutionary peoples, Russian and Germanic, a combination that by its very force and weight will compel the militarists of Europe's warring nations to cease their strife. And so, out of revolution will come the great peace."

You should read THE LITERARY DIGEST for March 24th to form an accurate opinion of the cause and results of the Russian Revolution, and the effect it will have in deciding the fortunes of war for the Entente Allies.

What is Good for the Child Should Be Good for the Parent

In educating our children we do not follow the policy of insisting that they shall confine themselves to a narrow and one-sided view of things. Rather do we insist that their training shall be broad and comprehensive and that they shall be told what all thinkers, and not merely a certain group of thinkers, have to say on a given subject. We all recognize this as a sound policy in matters educational, yet how many of us follow it in relation to our personal thinking on the great questions of the day? Very few, if the truth be told. To the man or woman who wishes to see both sides, to get an intelligent view of life and all its interests, at home and abroad, THE LITERARY DIGEST offers each week an intensely interesting and wholly impartial summary of all that is going on in politics, art, science, religion, finance, etc., leaving you to form your own conclusions from its unbiased presentation of the facts. Read it and think along broad lines for yourself.

10,000 U. S. ARMY ONE MILE OF TRENCH

WAR CORRESPONDENT TELLS
REGULAR OFFICERS HIS IM-PRESSIONS OF FUTURE.

By Associated Press.
Washington, March 23.—Frederick Palmer, war correspondent, who was the only accredited representative of the American press on the western front more than two years, delivered a confidential talk here today at the army war college to the general staff and many army officers detailed here.
Mr. Palmer detailed to the army officers many things which he has not been at liberty to publish, principally of a military value to the United States. Some of the things the correspondent told the army officers were permitted to become public and among them was his declaration that the United States should not attempt to send any troops to France until it has raised an army of proper proportions. Ten thousand men, he said, would do little more than hold a mile of trenches.
On the subject of censorship in the event of the United States entering the war, Mr. Palmer counseled the appointment of a chief civilian censor, with army and navy officers for assistants and the publication of all possible details in connection with the army. Inasmuch as an army must be recruited from the people, he told the officers, the people must be recognized as part of it and must be given any information which would not be of military value to an enemy.

Roosevelt Is Going South for Sharks and Devil Fish

By Associated Press.
New York, March 23.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt left here today for a short vacation in Florida.
"I am going down with Russell J. Coles of Danville, Va., to Florida, to see him hunt devil fish and sharks," said Colonel Roosevelt.
"I plan to get back by April 2 or 3 when congress will have convened."
"I am going away because at the moment there is nothing here I can do. All of the arrangements which with-out governmental action, I can make as regards my division and its organization work, are progressing as far and as rapidly as possible."
Mr. Coles, who is a wealthy tobacco planter, is an expert on devil fish and shark hunting, Colonel Roosevelt said.

The miners were caught behind a cavern and it is estimated there is eighty feet of earth between the entombed men and their rescuers.

WAR CAUSED SHORTAGE.

By Associated Press.

Lovett, chairman of the Union Pacific's executive board, testified today before the Newlands investigating committee.

MISCHA ELMAN AT AUDITORIUM.

"Emperor of Violinists" is a term well applied to Mischa Elman, who held his large audience spellbound last night at the Auditorium throughout his playing. Waco music lovers are indebted to Judge Wren for having afforded them an opportunity to hear this violin virtuoso.
To do full justice to his fine technique, his unequalled expression and masterful execution, one would have to be a finished artist himself. Suffice it to say that the Auditorium walls never heard an applause more spontaneous, hearty and lavish than last night. When the program was concluded, the hearers remained in their seats and simply refused to leave until Mischa Elman had given them an extra encore.

"A DAUGHTER OF THE POOR" AT THE HIPPODROME.

Many splendid touches of comedy are given the new Bessie Love picture, "A Daughter of the Poor," showing at the Hippodrome today only, by the presence of little George Stone and Tina Rossi as the brother and sister of the heroine. In one instance they set out to take their father's dinner to him in a tin bucket. Not being able to run down the stairs fast enough, they slide down the banisters. This, of course, results disastrously for the dinner and the ensuing scene is one that will bring delight to the kiddies and will amuse any adult. The star herself has better opportunities for comedy in this than in any play she has been given before, and since that story was written by Anania Loos, the author of most of the Fairbanks plays, it is a foregone conclusion that the subtitles will be unusually enjoyable. Miss Love plays a young girl who hates wealth and the wealthy, but finds that her lover, whom she thinks is a chauffeur, is a millionaire. Roy Stewart is her leading man, and George Beranger and Carl Stockade are prominent in the cast.

TOASTIES"

shown at the Hippodrome, was written Manager Everett by R. E. Fellow of the Raleigh:

"I am surely appreciative of the opportunity you so kindly extended me to witness the initial showing of the moving picture, '20,000 Leagues Under the Sea.'"

"This is truly a wonderful achievement and demonstrates that there is no limit to which film producers will not go in order to furnish the public really high-class educational and entertaining features."

"The educational benefits of these pictures are such that months of reading and study will not equal the lessons we learn in one or two hours from a direct observation of a subject we may be interested in. In fact, I believe that a great amount of the world's betterment in the last few years is due more to the moving picture industry than any other cause."

"The silent actor portraying the drunkard, the thief, the selfish person and others, does more to bring home to such persons their faults, as others see them, with greater force than the greatest orator can explain or the truest friend picture. I personally known of several men with a weakness for drinking who have cured themselves of the habit by observing the actions of those intoxicated portrayed on a picture screen, and many a selfish person, after watching a good picture has left the theatre with better and kinder thoughts and unselfish feelings for other fellow men and women."

"Of course, there are good pictures and there are others not so good, however, this is true of everything in life. We would not destroy the forest, the hedges or beautiful wild flowers because there is entwined therein a poison ivy, and so with moving pictures and other educational and entertaining attractions—the best should be encouraged, and with the progress and the demand made in the past few years for the best in everything there will eventually come a time when only the best, such as you specialize in, will be acceptable to the general public."

A cake without butter!

(Report No. 1) By a man who saw it done

They told me that wholesome Cottolene made delicious cakes. To make sure, I had Katie make this cake. I looked on.

At the start, Katie was very doubtful. She said, "You've got to use butter for cake." I said, "No, you haven't. Just one-third less of Cottolene than you would of butter. You wait and see." I wanted to show Katie and I was hoping for an A-number-one cake.

Katie went ahead doing a lot of things that I did not understand. But finally the batter was ready. I licked the spoon and the batter flavor gave promise of a fine cake flavor.

It kept its promise. When the layers were done Katie said, "My! See how light it is."

We waited 15 minutes for the cake to cool before testing its flavor. When we did, Katie's doubts were removed.

Her coconut cake was certainly a delicious cake and not a speck of butter had been used.

Katie used this recipe:
Two-thirds cup Cottolene
2 cups sugar
3 eggs
3 cups flour
5 level teaspoons baking powder
Quarter teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
Half teaspoon each lemon and vanilla.
Boiled frosting sprinkled with coconut.

GIANTS AND NAVS THREATEN RECORD FOR HOME RUNS

EIGHT CIRCUIT DRIVERS THROWN OUT—SIX SMALL AMERICANS KEPT BUSY.

Special to the News.

Marlin, March 23.—The world's record of home runs made in a single game was threatened today when the Giants and Navigators went on a batting rampage and hit out eight circuit drivers, lacking but one more to tie the record of nine made by the Corsicans team. These were evenly divided, each getting four.

The Navigators hit Peritt and Kelly for fourteen safeties, and Russ and Head gave up fifteen to the major league swatters. Tanner led off for the Navs and clouted one over right-field fence for a circuit. In the Giants' half of the same frame, Heine Zimmerman ripped out a homer, scoring Robertson ahead of him. It required the services of six small boys to keep the balls in the park. The score:

The High Cost of Indigestible Food

falls heavily upon the household where there is no intelligent direction of the food supply. Expensive high proteid foods, such as beef and pork, impose a heavy burden upon the liver and kidneys. They are not as nutritious as cereals and fruits. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with milk supply all the nutriment needed for a half day's work at a cost of only four or five cents. Cut out meat and eggs, eat Shredded Wheat Biscuit with green vegetables and fruits, and see how much better you feel. For breakfast with hot milk or cream. Made at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

E. P. Buie in Waco for Christian Endeavorers

E. P. Buie, president of Waco district of Christian Endeavor, was a surprise visitor and speaker at the rally meeting last night at the Central Christian church. Clarence C. Hamilton of Boston, Mass., will speak at the Central Christian church April 17. Mr. Hamilton is field representative of the Christian Endeavor World, which is published in Boston. He is coming to Texas in the interest of the Campaign for Millions and the Christian Endeavor World.

Twelve Waco Endeavorers have begun planning for the state convention at Houston in June. Frank Smith is chairman of the Houston committee and publicity in general for the union. The Morrow Street Methodist Endeavorers won the banner again with an overwhelming majority.

Perhaps It's Here

DECLARING that the educational facilities and advantages of Texas should be advanced by the constitutional convention which is proposed for this state next January, Joel Kinnannon, prominent citizen of Eddy, was in Waco yesterday.

"The people should at least have the privilege of saying what they want to do in the various school districts of the state," said Mr. Kinnannon. "If they wish to vote as much as $1 on the $100 valuation they should be given the chance to do so. It should be left with the various schools as to the amount they wish to spend, up to a reasonable point. As matters now stand the limit is not high enough as I see it."

John Wicks, negro, on trial for the murder of his wife in Waco several months ago, was found not guilty by a jury after being out about forty minutes yesterday.

Wicks was on trial in the Fifty-fourth district court.

Poage Says Legislature Results Are Satisfactory

Satisfaction yesterday was expressed by Representative W. A. Poage over the work done in a general way by the Texas legislature. He said, also, that the prohibition question, while in evidence all right, did not really hamper matters as much as he had thought, and good humor was maintained by both sides of this issue.

Representative Poage had much to do with the passage of the penitentiary bill, road bills and the highway legislation, in fact was vice chairman of the committee on highway legislation.

Cotton Mill to Waco Anticipated Yesterday

A cotton mill for Waco, with capital and equipment on a large scale, was announced yesterday morning by President J. M. Penland of the Chamber of Commerce at a directors' meeting of this organization. President Penland announced that he now is securing data, including cost, methods of operation, labor conditions, earning power and other features.

Parties who are interested are in communication with President Penland. It is believed that some definite move in the matter can be made at an early date.

State Y. M. B. L. Meeting to Be Held at Houston

Advices have been received by Secretary W. Roy Christian of the Y. M. B. L. that the State Y. M. B. L. meeting will be held in Houston instead of Plainview, as was at first intended. It was found that Plainview was not central enough, but the hospitable invitation was appreciated. W. V. Crawford of Waco is one of the state organization's directors. The meeting will be held in April.

Ad Writers League in Meet Last Evening

The Waco Adwriters' league meeting was enjoyed last evening at the Raleigh by many members and several guests. After the disposition of business matters the meeting resolved itself into a trial court to pass upon "charges," the "admissibility of evidence" and the "guilt" or "innocence" of one member. The profitability and unprofitability of various mediums, the proper stating of facts and figures and other important details of the craft were brought out in the trial. The defendant was cleared after a lengthy trial.

The next ads will be written for the Southwestern Engraving company, and the next session of the league will be on the first Friday evening in April at the Raleigh.

Two new members were elected to membership, Frank White and D. E. Hicks.

COMMERCE CHAMBER DIRECTORS TO MEET FRIDAY AFTERNOON

MUCH IMPORTANT ROUTINE CONSIDERED—PLAN FOR BETTER MAIL SERVICE NORTH.

A special committee was named by Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday to aid in securing hourly mail service between Dallas and Waco through medium of the interurban. The committee named is W. W. Woodson, Alex Sanger and Sam Hanna.

A special committee on public utilities also was named. One of the first things the committee will undertake is the matter of securing street car service to Bellmead. This committee is composed of W. V. Crawford, C. P. Link and E. E. Witt.

It was announced that the agricultural committee has arranged for a big meeting of farmers here next Monday at 2 o'clock, this meeting to be held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Clarence Ousley of A. & M. and L. J. Allen of the state livestock commission of Fort Worth will be present. After the meeting the members will see the county commissioners regarding dipping vats for this county in a fight against the ticks.

A special committee to aid in the homecoming plan of the Waco soldier boys for today was named, R. E. Fellow, J. R. Milam, W. W. Woodson, L. Migel and J. J. Powers.

Plan to Move Exchange. The matter of moving the Waco Cotton exchange to the Chamber of Commerce rooms was discussed. This matter was referred to Secretary H. D. Driscoll.

Free quarters were offered the Waco Welfare league, in order to aid in reducing overhead expenses of the organization.

There was some discussion of the proposed improvement of the roads of the county, in case the bond issue is put through successfully.

Twelve individuals and firms were elected to membership in the Chamber of Commerce.

The resignation of H. M. Baine as a director of the organization was accepted owing to absence from the city. Mr. Baine was designated as general representative in the North and East, and his name will be placed on letterheads in this capacity.

Arrangements were made for serving a luncheon to members of the Texas Press association who will be here June 13 on their way from North Texas to Galveston. They also will be shown the city as a part of the program.

Letter from Dallas. A letter from the Dallas Chamber of Commerce renewed the invitation to Waco people to attend the meeting in Dallas March 27, when former President W. H. Taft will speak.

The Junior Commercial club was granted use of the rooms on Thursday night of each week. An advisory committee for this organization was named, consisting of J. M. Penland, C. P. Link and E. F. Drake.

The constitution and by-laws were ratified and will be printed and distributed.

It was decided to hold a general membership meeting during April, the date to be named later.

Poage Gets Interested in Street Improvement

The matter of grading and graveling North Eleventh street, from Herring to Trice avenue, has been taken up by Col. W. A. Poage with the city commission, and will be strongly urged.

Colonel Poage said yesterday that graveling this street would mean much both to the city and country travel, as there is at present no way of getting across from North Waco to Providence sanitarium and the main streets leading out from the downtown area. He thinks this connection of a few blocks would prevent congestion in getting to the city and minimize dangers of accidents, besides being a great convenience.

HIGH SCHOOL CLUB MEETS.

Over sixty members of the High School club were present last night to hear the address of Dr. Kessler of Baylor University on "The Relation of Life and Christianity." The announcement was made that Jessie R. Wilson, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., would address the club at its next meeting. Supper was served to the members of the club by the Mothers' association following the meeting last night.
